Church of St. John the Baptist 20.12.50 GV

Anglican parish church, c1200, c13, much rebuilt c1450 and heavily restored c1854 and in 1877 by Wilson, Willcox and Wilson of Bath. Ashlar and rubble stone with stone tile and slate roofs with coped gables. C15 West tower, c1200 nave with later C13 clerestorey, C13 chancel much altered, later C13 north east chapel and C15 aisles and porch, probably incorporating earlier work. Fine ashlar tall west tower, 3 stages with set-back buttresses and north east stair turret. Heavy moulded plinth and string courses. Lower stage with large 4-light window over small arched door to west front and similar 4-light blank panels to sides. Second stage with 5 long cusped head panels with statue niche to each face and top stage with paired cusped bell-openings continued as blank panels below transom, pierced stonework to bell-openings. Moulded coved cornice and trefoil pierced parapet with corner pinnacles and stone spirelet to stair tower. One-handed clock on west face. South aisle has low roof with parapet, 2 flat-headed 2-light windows flanking much restored porch with sloping buttresses and statue niche, to right a restored Perpendicular 4-light arched window with hood. Clerestorey rebuilt in C19 with moulded eaves and 3 windows. Chancel with slate roof and rebuilt south wall with moulded eaves and 2 C19 flat-head Perpendicular style 3-light windows (outlines of lancets were visible' 1855). East C19 decorated style 3-light window. North chapel has slate roof and east end in line with chancel east end. 3-light restored Decorated east window with sexfoil head. corbelled eaves to north side, C19 blocked door and restored 2-light window. Attached is 1877 vestry, High Victorian Gothic with large truncated east end stack over octofoil light. North aisle has parapet, carved gargoyles, buttresses and moulded plinth. 3 renewed Perpendicular style north windows, 3-light with pointed heads and large 4-light Perpendicular style west window. Interior: tierceron star vault with octagon bell-rope opening to tower. Screen part of C15 chancel screen. 4 bay nave with heavily restored circular piers and trumpet capitals with square abaci to south side, north side has 2 stiff leaf capitals and octagonal abaci. Pointed arcade with one step soffits to earlier south side and double chamfer to later north side. West arches are C15. C19 collar-rafter roof with pierced spandrels to straight braces. South aisle has C19 south door and C19 roof. At east end effigy of R. Walmsley (d.1893) signed H.H. Armstead. North aisle has fine carved corbel heads and C19 roof. Inset fragment of C9 cross and c1200 figure of saint. 2nd window has glass of 1881, 3rd fragments of medieval glass. Chancel heavily restored, east window c1854 with faded glass by Bell of Bristol, stone reredos 1905. On south wall C13 style sedilia and piscina, C19, but piscina part original, and C14 style ogee arched tomb-recess. On north wall elaborate C15 style triple sedilia, originally on south wall next to piscina, but moved and almost entirely remade 1877. C19 roof. 2 heavily restored arches to north east chapel, similar to nave north arcade. North east chapel has C19 roof and original carved heads to east window. Tomb recess of c1300 in north wall. Numerous C17 to C19 wall plaques collected in north east chapel. In north aisle plaque to E. Teyly dated 1627 with Ionic, pilasters. [E.W. Godwin: Wiltshire Archaeological Magazine 3 1857 358-366. Legal Description

Colerne War Memorial stands on a small area of grass on the edge of the Market Place, close to the Walmesley memorial (Grade II) and surrounded by numerous buildings listed at Grade II and the Church of St John the Baptist (Grade I). The Bath stone memorial comprises a tapering Latin cross rising from a moulded collar, on top of a tall octagonal shaft. The cross shaft is set on a large four-sided, tiered plinth with corner buttresses. Each buttress is faced with a blind trefoil arch. The principal faces of the plinth carry the dedication and commemorated names. The memorial has a two-stage sloping base and stands on a square stone slab. The main inscription reads FOR KING AND COUNTRY/ IN LASTING MEMORY OF/ THE MEN OF THIS VILLAGE/ WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES/ IN THE GREAT WAR/ 1914 – 1918/ ERECTED BY/ PUBLIC SUBSCRIPTIONS with below 1939 – 1945/ (2 NAMES). The remaining names commemorated on the plinth faces include the First World War combatants, with the later Second World War casualties listed below the earlier names.

Country House, late C17 or early C18 origins, refronted and extended c1820 and rear and interiors much altered 1921. Ashlar fronted with stone tiled roofs and large corniced ashlar stacks. 3 and 2-storeys. Long south front with 3-storey centre, possibly late C17 refronted, 3-window range. Upper floor with canted corners and diagonal stacks, 3 coped gables and 12-pane sashes, first floor with mid C18 moulded cornice over three 12-pane sashes in moulded architraves and ground floor early C19 Greek Doric porch with 4 pairs of columns, pilaster responds and 12-pane sash each side of central double doors. To each side early C19 wings, 3- window range of 12-pane sashes, longer to ground floor and with moulded architraves. Parapet and moulded first floor band. Projecting wings at each end with urns on parapet corners and 2- storey bows with tripartite 4-12-4 upper windows and similar French windows below. West and east fronts partly early C19, mostly of c1921, as also the facades to rear court. Rear front dated 1921 A.H.R. for Sir Alfred Reed. Attached at east side a large late C19 water tower, 3 stages with flat parapet and corner urns. To north of west range a screen wall with broken pedimented archway and ball finial. To north of east range, pair of stone gatepiers to service court. Interiors: main rooms remodelled in early C18 style, probably c1921. House was owned by the Wallis family in early C18, the Methuen family in later c18, J. Clements c1800, W. Tonge 1807-27, J. C. Boode 1827-70, and the Walmesley family 1870-1918. The major extensions may date from after 1827.

House, apparently C17, much extended c1925, rubble stone with stone tiled roofs. Two and a half and 3-storeys. Original house is L- plan with coped gables and end wall stacks. Front range has 2- window range of 3-light cyma-moulded mullion windows with string course between to first and second floors and ground floor built out in rock-faced masonry, probably late C19 with reused late C18 Adam style porch with 2 columns and fluted frieze. Return has 2- light cyma-moulded second floor window to east face. South end has added south wing with coped south gable, large east side stepped buttress and earlier C20 Tudor-style windows and door. South end has later C20 stone 2-storey canted bay with mullion and transom windows. On west side of wing, single storey early C19 ashlar bow- fronted room with glazing bar windows. West side of house has 2- window range of mullion windows hoodmoulds to first floor. Cyma- moulded except for first floor left 3-light recessed ovolo-moulded window. C20 ground floor 5-light window. Added to east is large c1925 wing, built for Wills family with outside east end stack, 2- storeys, 3-window range of mullion windows. Ground floor centre mullion and transom window and, to right, a 2-storey bay with mullion windows above and mullion and transom windows below. Interior: much restored, fine c1925 Renaissance style hall fireplace, stone with carved frieze of lions and griffins and carved surround. Rear room of c1925 range has small stone Tudor- arched moulded fireplace, re-used and south wing has Tudor- arched fireplace re-used from elsewhere in house. 6- panel doors to early C19 south west room and panelling within. House said to date from c1590.
